

Your Partner ID.:

TIN (Tax Identification Number)*:

ZINZINO CONDITIONS FOR GLOBAL SUPPLEMENTARY PARTNER AGREEMENT 2020-12-15

I, as an independent partner (further "IP) of Zinzino, take full responsibility to report the commission that I receive/have received from Zinzino to the required authorities according to the laws in my country. I state that I fully and voluntarily oblige to pay all taxes and charges that apply to me as an independent partner in Zinzino in my country. I am also fully aware that I as independent contractor have to register according to the rules of self-employment in my country.

I understand and agree with the fact that my contract with Zinzino is not an employment of any kind; I act as an individual, independent partner. I will therefore not impose any demands on Zinzino other than the commission paid from Zinzino under the current agreement as an independent partner. I understand and agree that Zinzino will not be responsible for payments of tax, social security contributions and / or any other charges existing in my country on my behalf.

I am also fully aware that me being the IP have to register for any form of business or company entity when my received commission exceeds 7,000 USD per calendar year. I am aware that Zinzino has the right to withhold payment of commissions in excess of 7,000 USD per calendar year if I fail to register as a business entity or neglect, upon request, to send documentation to Zinzino that verifies my new business registration.

First name:

Last name:

Date: Partner's signature:

* TIN is used to identify taxpayers and facilitate the administration of their national tax affairs
- NB! You have to send in the document confirming your TIN to validate the supplementary agreement.
- Supplementary agreement is applicable only for Business Individuals and not for Companies.